

Hartmut Glaser

ASO

Professor Hartmut Richard Glaser is the Executive Secretary of the Brazilian Internet Steering Committee - CGI.br in Brazil, a “multistakeholder“ body that coordinates all internet activities in Brazil, since 1996.

Before he take over this position, he was Researcher at Van de Graaff Laboratory at the Physics Institute of USP/São Paulo State University (1968/1970); then he was Researcher at the Microelectronics Laboratory at the Polytechnic School (Engineering Faculty) of USP(1970/1990); Special Adviser to the Director (Dean) of the Polytechnic School of USP (1989/1993); Special Adviser to the President of FAPESP/Foundation for Research Support of the State of São Paulo (1996/2004); Coordinator of the Academic Network/ANSP at the State of São Paulo (1996/2002); Board Member of LACNIC (2000/until now); Member of the Address Council (AC) of the Address Supporting Organization (ASO/NRO) of ICANN (2000/until now); Member of ICANN’s “Nominating Committee” for 7 years; Local Organizer of two ICANN Meetings in Brazil, 2003 (Rio de Janeiro) and 2006 (São Paulo); Local Organizer of the “2. IGF - Internet Governance Forum” 2007 in Rio de Janeiro/Brasil; Local Organizer of NETmundial 2014 in São Paulo/Brazil; Faculty Member of the “Summer School of Internet Governance” in Buenos Aires/Argentina (2009), in São Paulo/Brazil (2010) and in Meissen/Germany (2009/2014); Special Adviser to Nitin Desai, the general coordinator of all 5 IGFs/Internet Governance Fora.